

Health Behavior Research (HBR) is the official journal of the American Academy of Health Behavior (AAHB). HBR is a peer-reviewed open-access scholarly journal that published original research articles, current issues papers, commentaries, and abstracts from the annual meeting of the Academy. HBR is dedicated to the translation of research to advance policy, program planning, and/or practice relevant to behavior change. This aim is accomplished by publishing scholarly works from basic and applied scientists that rigorously apply, test, and inform efforts to revise, refine, or reject theoretical principles.

Submit an Article: Please visit our journal webpage for instructions on how to submit a manuscript for review. You can also check out our latest issue!

Call for Reviewers: We need more reviewers for the journal. If you are interested in reviewing, please send Dr. Anna Greer an email (greera@sacredheart.edu) with your name, institutional affiliation, and areas of expertise. Please include “HBR Reviewer” in the subject line of your email. We appreciate your service, particularly in these challenging times.

Upcoming Special Issues: If you have an idea for a special issue and/or are interested in serving as a guest editor for a special issue of HBR, please reach out to Dr. Anna Greer (greera@sacredheart.edu). Only AAHB members can serve as guest editors.
